

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair is obligated to serve the public. They need to be multi-sided. It is not their job to campaign for a candidate, but rather to provide honestly to the American people.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
